

On a re-consideration of the resolution your honorable body, will consent to pass it.

By order,

Gideon Pearce, Clk.

Mr. Kennedy, from the committee on insolvent debtors, made a favorable report upon the bill entitled, an act for the relief of Charles V. Nickerson, and James D. Nicholson, of the city of Baltimore.

The said bill was then read a second time and on motion of Mr. Heath, was ordered to lie on the table.

On motion of Mr. Dennis, the bill entitled, an act relating to the recording of Deeds, was read a second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Kennedy, submitted the following resolution which was read the first time.

Whereas, on the decease of many revolutionary pensioners to whom arrears of Pension are due—they leave so little property that an administration on their estate would be attended with much trouble, and in some cases the costs would be greater than the ballance due—Therefore, be it resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, that in case of the death of any revolutionary pensioner either before or after the passage of this resolution, the Treasurer for the Western Shore be and he is hereby authorised and directed to pay so much of his or her pension as was due or had accrued at the time thereof, to his widow if any, and if none, to the deceased penrioners legal representatives, or to her or their order, but if there be no widow or legal representatives then to the personal representatives of the pensioner, provided that the Treasurer shall in all cases be satisfied that the rest of the pensioners estate was of little or no value at the time of his decease.

Mr. Whitely, from the committee made a favorable report upon the bill entitled, an act to repeal an act entitled, an additional supplement to an act entitled, an act for the distribution of a certain fund for the purpose of establishing Free Schools, in the several counties therein mentioned, and for other purposes, the said bill was then read a second time.

Mr. Forrest, from the committee made a favorable report upon the bill entitled, an act authorising the Levy court of Frederick county to levy a sum of money to erect a bridge over the river Monocacy.

The said bill was then read a second, and by special order, a third time passed and returned to the House of Delegates.
